

VILLAGE HARMONY

singing camps for teens ages 12-19

Midwest Teen Traveling Camp - NEW!

June 22 – July 7, 2013 (14 days)

Led by Mollie Stone, Natalie Nowytski, Will Thomas Rowan

Start out with 25 or so self-selected, non-auditioned teen singers. Sift in three well-seasoned music leaders, fluent in a wide range of traditions and highly experienced as teachers. Sprinkle in a variety of languages and exotic cultures, and then saturate with vital and honest music chosen from among the world's most powerful harmony singing traditions. Blend well during a week of intense singing, in a unique Michigan-based retreat center. Treat the music with respect, and the participants with high expectations. To finish off, subject the entire mixture to the myriad challenges of a concert tour, ensuring that performances are polished to the highest sheen. The result? Harmony in infinite shades of the meaning of the word. Comradeship, exhilaration, and heartfelt art of an extraordinarily high order.

No competition. Just joy.
